

Canadian Venous Thromboembolism
Research Network

Research Training Awards

Fall 2024 Research Start-up Competition Application Instructions

APPLICATION FORM

Application Deadline: Monday, January 20th, 2025

Purpose of the Research Start-up Awards Program

---

Research start-up funding is intended to provide operating funds to support individual trainees' research activities.

These funds are intended to help trainees to achieve their research objectives. To this end, the funds may be used for start-up operating funds for a research project or preliminary/pilot work to strengthen their research, including services, materials, or supplies.

Award Details

---

Amount of Research Start-up Award: Up to $2,500 per trainee

This funding may not be used for:

- salary support for trainees
  - activities with funding available from other sources
  - travel relating to any academic experiences (e.g. presentation of research work at a scientific conference)
-

Canadian Venous Thromboembolism
Research Network

Research Training Awards

Fall 2024 Research Start-up Competition Application Instructions

Candidate Eligibility

---

- Any trainee (medical student, resident, graduate student, fellow) that is conducting research under the supervision of a CanVECTOR member is eligible to apply.
- Applicants are encouraged to apply for membership when applying for awards.
- Priority will be given to applicants who have not previously received a Research Start-up Award.

Components of the Application

---

1. Application form
2. Summary of the research project
  - a. Maximum 1-page summary excluding references; references may be included on a separate page
  - b. Applications must use a minimum of 12-point font and 1-inch margins for all submitted material.
  - c. See CanVECTOR guidance/tips for writing the research summary

Selection and Notification Process

---

Applications will be reviewed by the co-Chairs of the Training, Mentoring, and Early Career Development Platform.